become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys, If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the fiesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose,

THE CLEVELAND (O.) PLAIN OEALER HAS THIS TO SAY OF BRAHM VAN DEN BERG

Practically unheralded and unknown came Van Den Berg, and, like Casar, he came, was heard and conquered. Nor is his professional brilliancy of meteoric quality; far from it. It is based upon the true traditions of the art he represents and the qualities of a God-given genius. His playing on Thursday evening was both a revelation and an inspiration. In his exploitation of the master works he ran the entire gamut of schools from Bach and Beethoven to the ultra-modern pyrotechnichs of Liszt and Moszkowski. And truth to tell he was to the manor born in all. You read of a temperament that touches with the inspiration of a poet-Van Den Berg has it; of a technique that scorns difficulties and laughs at obstacles -Van Den Berg has it: of intellectuality that holds in abeyance the frenzy of inspiration, and gives logical consistency to inspired thought -Van Den Berg has it. He plays Bach with a modern peetic scholasticism that gives to counterpoint the glamour of Chopin. He plays Chopin with subtle charm and mystery that reveals the artistic nature of an improvisator, a minnesinger of modern times. When virtuosity is the vehicle of musical thought he can make his instrument emit luminous sparks. It will be long before one hears such a convincing virtuosity, combined with temperamental refinement as did Van Den Berg give us in the "Valse of Saint-Saens." It was like a flash of inspiration, a glimpse into the holy of holies of true art. I may be enthusiastic in my estimate of his art, but I do not hesitate to place this dapper little artist with the best; small perhaps in stature, but gigantic in his conception of his art. Brahm Van Den Berg will appear at the Washington Opera-house in piano recital Monday, May 23d, 1904. Reserved

Rev. Dr. Maurice Waller left for Chicago yesterday afternoon, where he will officiate at a Agent O'Donnell for back taxes. The amount

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1908. I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me.

The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 18 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhœa, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.
